

The State of Maryland

Proclamation

From the Governor of the State of Maryland

BOSNIAN AMERICAN DAY
MARCH 1, 2025

- WHEREAS, Bosnia and Herzegovina declared independence on March 1, 1992, marking a historic milestone in its pursuit of democracy, self-determination, and freedom; and
- WHEREAS, The State of Maryland recognizes the enduring friendship between the United States and Bosnia and Herzegovina and values the contributions of Bosnian Americans in strengthening our state's multicultural heritage; and
- WHEREAS, The Bosnian American community in Maryland has made significant contributions to the cultural, economic, and social fabric of the state, enriching our diverse society through their traditions, values, and dedication to progress; and
- WHEREAS, Maryland is home to a growing and vibrant Bosnian American population that has excelled in various fields, including business, education, healthcare, and public service, demonstrating resilience and furthering civic engagement; and
- WHEREAS, For the past 22 years, Maryland and Bosnia and Herzegovina have maintained a strong and enduring partnership through the State Partnership Program, a collaboration between the Maryland National Guard and the Armed Forces of Bosnia and Herzegovina, fostering military, educational, and cultural exchanges that strengthen mutual understanding and cooperation; and
- WHEREAS, Annapolis, the capital of Maryland, and Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina, share a sister city relationship, further deepening the ties between our peoples and promoting cultural, educational, and economic exchanges, which are further enhanced by the Maryland-Bosnia and Herzegovina Exchange Council, fostering partnerships across commerce, academia, healthcare, and public service; and
- WHEREAS, Recognizing March 1 as Bosnian American Day in Maryland serves as a testament to our shared efforts in furthering democracy, human rights, and the promotion of peace and prosperity for all.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WES MOORE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, do hereby proclaim MARCH 1, 2025 as BOSNIAN AMERICAN DAY in Maryland, and do commend this observation to all of our citizens.

*Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, this 1st day of March
Two Thousand and twenty-five*
